Sub: Necessity to Nominate Architects as Member on the Boards of the Development Authorities/Prescribed Authorities and U.P. Housing Board

Dear Sir,

Architecture is a profession that deals with almost all aspect of the physical development of the cities or towns from macro to micro level. To regulate this physical development of the cities, development authorities and regulated areas were formed with the required technical and administrative set-up along with an advisory board. It has been experienced that the board mostly represents the political class of the society and most members are neither aware of the technical terms nor their implications on the city in the field of town planning and Architecture. They cannot suggest solutions of the problems in a technical way. As a result the development even after the formation of these development authorities could not be regulated as well planned and has multiplied the problems many fold.

It is one of the objectives of U.P. Architects Association to see our State developed, in technically sound manner, like Chandigarh, by visualizing and incorporating the future needs in the development plans of our cities and implementation of their provisions. To achieve the goal we need a technically sound and experienced team as the advisory board of the development authorities for which our association offers the valuable services/expertise of our members through our chapters. Almost all major cities of the state have our local chapter to cater the need for members.

We hope a proper attention on the matter will be paid while we are ready for any kind of support in the matter.

Thanking you

Yours Sincerely
