Subject: Regarding concerns raised about Architect's Premier League
(APL), Moradabad

Respected Sir,

We acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated 30th December 2025 regarding the concerns raised in connection with the recently conducted Architect's Premier League (APL) at Moradabad.

At the outset, Uttar Pradesh Architects Association (UPAA) would like to place on record its appreciation for the enthusiasm, participation and commitment shown by all member associations, including Agra Architects Association, towards this event. The intent of APL was purely to strengthen professional camaraderie and foster healthy interaction among architects across the state.

We would like to clarify that the APL at Moradabad was organised and conducted by Moradabad Architects Association for the first time, with UPAA extending its support as a facilitating and supporting body. UPAA was not involved in the day-to-day conduct or on-field decision-making processes of the event. The organising association made sincere efforts to conduct the programme to the best of their understanding and capacity, keeping in view the learning curve associated with a first-time event of this scale.

We regret that certain situations during the event, whether on-field or off-field, may have led to dissatisfaction or hurt sentiments among the participating members. In this regard, we would like to state that the clarification and resolution of matters related to the conduct of the event rests with the host association, i.e., Moradabad Architects Association.

For U.P. ARCHITECTS ASSOCIATION

PRESIDENT

UPAA has already approached and communicated with MAA regarding the concerns raised, with the intent that the issues may be addressed amicably and the misunderstandings, if any, are appropriately clarified.

While there was no intentional bias or unfairness from UPAA or the host association, we understand that perceptions arising out of such situations can be unfortunate and disappointing. It was never the intention of UPAA to hurt the sentiments and dignity of any member association.

UPAA firmly believes that such large-scale state-level events provide valuable learning opportunities. The feedback received from Agra Architects Association has been noted in the right spirit and will certainly help in framing clearer protocols, improved communication mechanisms and more structured grievance-handling procedures for future events.

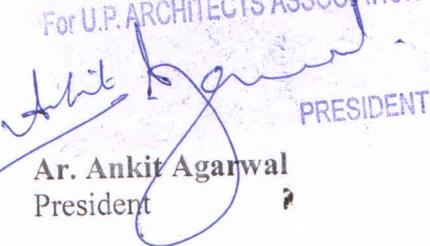

We sincerely hope that this isolated experience does not affect the long-standing relationship between Agra Architects Association and UPAA. Your association has always been a valued and respected member of the UPAA fraternity, and we look forward to your continued participation and support in future activities and events of the Association.

UPAA remains committed to promoting unity, transparency and mutual respect among all its constituent associations and assures that every effort will be made to ensure smoother and more inclusive conduct of future programmes.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

For U.P. ARCHITECTS ASSOCIATION
